

Suspect waives prelim hearing in Hiawatha rape case

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha teenager accused of the rape of a 13-year-old girl has waived his preliminary hearing.

19-year-old Nicholas Miller was bound over to Brown County District Court Wednesday on the felony charge.

Brown County Attorney Kevin Hill says arraignment was scheduled for the morning of August 6th.

A judge in November found Miller competent to stand trial based on an evaluation conducted by KANZA Mental Health.

He was arrested last June following an investigation by the Hiawatha Police Department.

Miller remains in the Brown County Jail, held on a $150,000 bond.
