

Two women injured in Doniphan Co wreck

(KNZA)--An early Saturday morning two-vehicle Doniphan County wreck sent two women to the hospital.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says the wreck was reported shortly after 6:00 on U.S. 36 Highway, east of K-120.

According to the KHP report, 23-year-old Ashley Burge, of Atchison, was westbound when she lost control of her car on the icy roadway. Her vehicle entered the eastbound lane and was struck by a car driven by 58-year-old Jenise Schraad, of Seneca.

Both women were transported to Mosaic Life Care in St. Joseph, Schraad with suspected serious injury and Burge with suspected minor injury.

The Patrol says both drivers were buckled up when the wreck occurred.
