http://www.RMGOnlineNews.com/news/index.cfm?nk=71994

Seneca to celebrate 150th +1

(KMZA)--The City of Seneca will celebrate the city's 150th +1 birthday this weekend.

The city had originally planned to celebrate its 150th last year, but the event was postponed due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Activities will kick off Friday evening at 5:00 with Cruise Night on Main Street. Music will play on the loudspeakers while classic cars cruise Main.

Mitch Holthus, who serves as the play-by-play voice of the Kansas City Chiefs, will speak at 7:00 in Skoch Park.

Also at Skoch Park there will be food trucks available from 5:30 to 7:30.

A full day of activities is planned Saturday.

All Seneca museums will be open from 9 to noon, plus there will be turn of the century demonstrators.

A cornhole tournament will take place at Skoch Park. Registration is $40 per team, with registration beginning at 10:00 at the tennis courts, and play beginning at 11:00.

There will be games and activities at Skoch Park for all ages from 1 to 6 pm---including axe throwing, face painting, yard games, a cake walk, a strolling magician and more.

In addition, there will be live music, beginning at 1:00. Repeat Offenders will perform from 1 to 3; Sawyer Jay from 3:30 to 5:30; Acoustic Rooster from 5:45 to 8:00; and headliner, David Oakleaf and the Open Road, from 8:30 to 10:30 pm

Many Signals Communications