

Atchison wreck leaves woman injured

(KAIR)--A woman was injured after a motorcycle crashed at an Atchison intersection Tuesday.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, 33-year-old Addam Stephenson, of Atchison, was southbound on 17th Street, around 4:20 that afternoon.

Stopping at a stop sign at 17th Street, then proceeding east onto Main Street, Wilson said Stephenson lost control of the motorcycle, and laid it on its side.

A passenger, 30-year-old Atchison resident Autumn Stephenson, was transported to Amberwell Atchison by Atchison County EMS for the treatment of injuries.

The driver was not hurt.
