(KNZA)--A Thursday evening single-vehicle Brown County roll-over wreck sent an Everest teenager to the hospital.

Brown County Sheriff John Merchant said the wreck was reported around 9:15 in the vicinity of Raccoon Road near 110th Road.

He said it appears Weesner's vehicle left the roadway and struck a railroad crossing arm. The wreck caused the vehicle to overturn before coming to rest in a ditch.

Weesner was flown by Lifestar to a Topeka hospital with what is to believed to be serious but non-life threatening injuries.
