

Family sex abuse sends LV man to prison

(KAIR)--A Leavenworth man that authorities say “molested two family members over a period of several years” is going to prison for more than two-decades.

37-year-old Terance Lee Dozier, Jr. learned his fate in Leavenworth County District Court, where he was previously convicted of two counts of aggravated criminal sodomy. All totaled, Dozier’s sentence means 25-years-10-months behind bars.

According to a release from Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson, Dozier was arrested by the Leavenworth Police Department following an investigation into his reported crimes of family molestation.

The initial disclosure of the abuse was made to a school counselor who notified authorities.
